Pet Boa Constrictor Missing From Home

"Help! I'm being swallowed by a boa constrictor," is a funny little ditty sung by many nursery school children. The song is funny because boa constrictors do not swallow people.

This information should be reassuring to Grayling residents who should be aware that Paul Millikin's five foot pet boa constrictor, 'Slick,' has been missing from his home at 407 Ogemaw Street since May 1.

Grayling City Police Chief, Peter Stephan, said even though Millikin has stated that Slick is harmless to humans and larger pets such as dogs or cats, and can be handled easily, the Grayling City Police has requested that anyone finding the reptile notify the police and not attempt to handle it. The owner will be notified to recover the Boa constrictors are slow-moving, nonpoisonous snakes that feed on small animals such as mice, squirrels and birds. The snake got its name because it constricts (squeezes) its food before swallowing it.

They are active mainly at night. Slick is five feet, one inch long and about four inches in diameter. It is pale brown with dark brown blotches. The owner of Fins, Feathers, and Fur Pet Shop in Houghton Lake said boa constrictors are more frightened of people than people are of them. She said pet boas become accustomed to their handlers, but are extremely timid with others. The owner also said that Slick's size would limit its diet to small animals such as mice.

400—lb. 'Chickadee' Visits Lovells Home

A black bear, weighing about 400 pounds, visited the Walker residence in Lovells Township last Thursday, June 22, and gobbled up all the food in their chickadee feeder.

"It didn't leave a single seed," said Abbott Walker.

The visitor came about 2:30 a.m. and awoke Walker's wife, Phyllis. The Walkers turned on the porch light to investigate and found the bear munching the bird food. The bear left once, returned and then left again. The Walkers have not seen their visitor again. Walker said there were two humming bird feeders hanging beside the chickadee feeder, but the bear was apparently not hungry for humming bird food. He said the bear pulled the chickadee feeder down but did not damage it.

"There was no doubt about it," Walker said, "he was pretty big for a chickadee."

It seems we keep saying this but blood is in extremely short supply all over the state of Michigan, and July and August are normally sub-standard months for blood giving because of the summer heat and vacation periods.

Drunk Drivers To Be Billed For Emergency Services

Drunk drivers arrested or involved in traffic accidents in Crawford County are going to be billed for all emergency service expenses incurred by the county in addition to fines or court costs that might be levied.

County ordinance number 89-2 was unanimously adopted by the Crawford County Board of Commissioners at its June 22nd meeting, and goes into effect immediately.

. The purpose of the ordinance is to make persons who operate a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs financially responsible for all emergency responses. Crawford

County has a significant number of traffic arrests and traffic accidents that involve the use of alcohol and drugs. It has also been determined that there is a greater likelihood of personal injury and property damage when alcohol is involved. According to the new ordinance, these factors are putting a greater operational and financial burden upon the Crawford County Sheriff's Dept., the Crawford County Ambulance Service and other rescue services. In the future, the financial burden will be paid by the

The ordinance defines emergency responses as: the utilization of public service, police and rescue services by the county in the event of an accident and the making of a traffic stop and arrest by the police officer where drivers who were operating motor vehicles while under the influence of alcohol or drugs or both are involved.

The ordinance presumes that a person is "under the influence of an alcoholic beverage if the chemical analysis of the driver's blood, urine or breath indicates that the amount of alcohol in the driver's blood is in excess of 0.07 percent."

County Commissioner Joseph Callewaert explained that a similar proposal (Senate Bill No. 25) was reintroduced in the state Senate by

Sen. Harmon Cropsey (R) of the Kalamazoo/Portage area, but that it has been tabled in Rep. Perry Bullard's Judiciary Committee. Callewaert said the same bill passed in the Senate last term, but failed to move off Bullard's "table."

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, David R. Sabin, stated in a letter to the Commissioners that he had been in contact with Bullard's office and was told that Senate Bill No. 25, "would not even be considered by the Judiciary Committee until late fall."

"As soon as we learned it would not be taken up until fall, at the very earliest," Callewaert said, "We decided to adopt the proposal as a local ordinance."

Callewert said in the 1960's Bullard was instrumental in passing the $5 ticket for possession of marijuana in Ann Arbor.

"His philosophy would be contrary to the philosophy of this ordinance or bill," said Callewaert, "because this bill makes violators financially accountable for their actions."

Earlier this year, the Crawford County Board of Commissioners unanimously passed a resolution urging the House of Representatives to adopt Senate Bill No. 25.

To date, Portage, Lansing and Livonia have all adopted similar

A Draft Recreation Plan for Crawford County was unanimously approved by the Crawford County Board of Commissioners following a public hearing on Thursday, June

The plan was prepared by Northeast Michigan Council of Governments (NEMCOG) of Gaylord, and will be available for public comment at the County Clerk's office until July 6th. revisions were recommended during the public hearing, and will be incorporated into the final draft. It will then be submitted by NEM-COG to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR) for its approval. The DNR must approve the county's plan before applications for state recreation funds can be approved.

Once the DNR approves the plan, it is no longer considered a draft, and will be effective for five years. The county's previous recreation plan was formulated in the 1970's and is now outdated.

The DNR has three funding sources for recreation development: Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund, Land and Water Conservation Trust Fund, and the Quality of Life Bond Program (proposal D funds).

The two trust funds have been in existence for several years and applications are usually submitted in the spring, sometime in March or April. Bond program money will be available as soon as state legislators approve rules and regulations for the program.

Sue Lindroth, technical assistant for NEMCOG, said she anticipates the bond program will begin taking applications yet this summer, hopefully within the next month.

All state recreational grants are for two year projects and most contain a 25 percent matching fund provision.

The Crawford County Recreation Plan includes projects and goals from the Grayling Recreation Authority (Hanson Hills) for $468,200, City of Grayling for $109,750 and Lovells Township for $44,500. The Crawford AuSable School District has indicated it would like to become a part of the plan, but did not have a completed recreation proposal. The district will become part of the county's plan when its plan is completed.

Each governmental unit will submit a separate grant application. Lindroth said NEMCOG is willing to assist in the grant application process. She explained that even if the state calls for applications this summer, applicants will not know whether their applications have been approved until sometime this winter, with monies becoming available late in the spring of 1990.

Governmental units not included in the recreation plan may be added to the plan by amendment at a later date.

"It is important that this plan be in place," said Lindroth, "in order for these units to apply for funds." Lindroth said if a unit's bond program application is turned down, it can then apply to one of the two trust funds next spring. Most initial grants will be applied for through the bonding program, she explained, because it is the largest fund available.

"Between now and application time," said Lindroth, "Crawford County units can either prioritize their projects, or decide to submit a grant application for the full amount of their proposed recreation plan."

Lindroth credited the efforts of Commissioner Joseph Callewaert, member of the parks and recreation committee, for getting the recreation plan off the ground

Pizza Ponies Spice Up Milltown Parade

Domino's Pizza Ponies will be a highlight of this year's Milltown Parade, on Saturday, July 29, at 3:00 p.m., says parade committee member Betty Bennett. Eight black miniature horses will pull a colorful, scaled-down version of a hitch wagon normally used with large draft horses. -

The team comes from a 22-horse stable located at Domino's Farms, a 300-acre site in Ann Arbor, Michigan. They are named after pizza toppings, such as Cheesy, Hammy, Olive, Pepperoni, Saucey, Onion, Beefy and Bacon.

American miniature horses are a unique breed. Normally no taller than 21 inches at birth, they mature into perfectly porportioned adults at 30-34 inches (8 ½ hands). The Pizza Ponies are four to sevenyear-old geldings which weigh 250 to 300 pounds. There are currently no more than 20,000 miniature horses registered in the United States. During the 17th and 18th centuries, the miniatures were given as gifts to European royal families. In the late 1800's, they were brought to the United States to work in the coal mines. Miniature horses are quite powerful, able to pull four times their body weight. Today, they are used principally for showing and breeding purposes.

The Milltown Festival is only one of the many events in which the Domino's Pizza Ponies appear every year. Their charm and wide appeal make them a delightful attraction at pizza stores, state fairs, rodeos, festivals and parades all over the United States and Canada.

The hitch will travel to Grayling for the festival in their custom built 42 foot trailer, which is pulled by a modified Ford F-700 truck.

horses will highlight the Milltown Festival Parade on July 29.

Correction

The article entitled "Money Problems Hit Co. Ambulance Corps" published in last week's Avalanche contained a layout error that made one portion of the article difficult to understand. The article should have said:

The current financial crunch came when the County Board of Commissioners directed the county treasurer to transfer $4,040, erroneously deposited in the ambulance replacement fund during 1985, 86, and 87, back into the general fund. This transfer left the replacement fund about $3,000 shy of being able to cover the recent ambulance refurbishing expenses, and the $3,000 was taken from the Corps' operating budget.

County treasurer, Joe Wakeley, explained the error had been discovered during the 1985 audit and the auditor recommended at that time that the money, $1,551 at that time, be returned to the general fund. Wakeley said that the Commissioners took no action, and the money continued to be deposited in the wrong fund. The overpayment grew, and has appeared during each successive audit. Wakeley said he became concerned about the money this year, because of the Board of Commissioners' 1989 policy that stated that the ambulance would either support itself financially, or it would be discontinued.

"There were several good reasons to make the transfer at this time," said Wakeley, "but the reason I made the adjustment now, was because I knew that if I didn't take it now the money wasn't going to be there to take later."

Crawford County Ambulance Corp's base rate is $195 per trip plus $3.50 per mile. Doremire said that CCAC only charges when it transports a patient. There are no fees billed when a unit responds to a fire or accident if the call does not result in a patient transport.

Let's Talk About It

By Joe Murphy

We have sure had our share of rain this spring. It seems strange to see the sun shining again. This year the farmers are being flooded out. Last year you couldn't buy a drop of rain for quite awhile. Thank God, not many are trying to make a living farming in Crawford County anymore. I can remember back when there were a lot of farmers around. Nobody was getting rich but they got by. At that time, Crawford County was all open range. Under the open range laws, you had to fence to keep stock off your property, not to keep them in. The farmers needed open range to raise enough stock to make it pay.

Most farms were only about eighty acres. If you had to keep them fenced in, you didn't have enough land to raise your winter's feed. The open range law was abolished in about 1960, and that spelled the end of farming in most cases. There was some pretty good farm land in the county--at least they used to raise some good crops in the old days. My dad's old farm, on the Deward Road, was some of the best land in the county. When we broke new ground, we had to raise a couple of crops of corn to wear it down before we could use it for potatoes. If we didn't, the potatoes were the size of pumpkins and just as hollow. I hate to even drive by the old place anymore. The buildings are gone and the land has gone to brush and weeds.

I wish someone could tell me where bugs come from. I think you could go into a sealed room and lay down a rotten banana and soon fruit flies would be there. It's the same thing with potato bugs. You could go way back in the woods, far from where there had ever been a potato plant. Plant one plant and there would be bugs on it as soon as it came up--another of life's unsolved mysteries.

Speaking of the end of farming on a small scale, I remember when I was a kid, we always had lots of prairie chickens around. I can remember walking in the hay fields and flushing dozens of them. We always left some corn in the field to help them through the winter. They disappeared about the same time that folks quit farming. I haven't seen a prairie chicken in many years now.

Contest Quite An Experience

I have now returned Miss the Pageant, Michigan and the experience was a very tough one. All of the girls were beautiful and talented, and I am sure it was difficult for the judges. The winner is Molly McIntyre, Miss Monroe County. In spending the week with Molly, I feel that she will represent this state well.

The weekdays were long and yet they flew by. We began each day with rehearsals at 8 a.m. Lunches were with area business organizations, such as the Rotary, Kiwanis, Exchange Club, Lions Club, and many others. Rehearsals in the afternoon kept us busy until dinner at various places, always entertaining groups of people. After dinner, rehearsals continued until 10 p.m., when we finally returned to our dorms at Muskegon Business College.

Thursday afternoon, I appeared for a personal interview by a panel of five judges from all over the ding me of the president's press conferences. Thursday evening, competitions began at the Fruenthal Theatre, with at least cards 3,000 spectators. I performed my talent competition that evening. Friday evening I performed swimsuit and evening competitions, gown making a 10-second speech about myself and how proud I am to represent the Grayling area.

Saturday the ten finalists were selected at the beginning of the show. Those ten ladies performed their competitions all over again, and the new Miss Michigan was crowned. There are many people I would like to thank for their help in preparing me for this adventure, and people who supported me throughout. First, thank you to the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce and businesses which donated funds to the Miss Grayling pageant, which supplied my swim suit and evening gown. Carol Beck, thank you for the voice instruction and the hours of donated Thanks to time. Maggie Priestap, Bob Ditmer, and John Smock of WQON, Irene Sleek Peterson. Images, Shear Magic, Hair Station and Cut Above. Thank you to everyone that sent and flowers while I was Muskegon, including Kent Old Grayling State Bank.. Great Lakes Bancorp. A big thank you to my pageant mom, June Ginther. Thanks to my parents for the moral and financial support, all of my friends, and finally Christine Holtz, my executive director, for everything she has done and her unlimited support. If I have missed anyone, thank you, everything is appreciated and won't be forgotten. It was a very tough experience, and I will do as much as I can to prepare the next Miss Grayling for the pageant. It was quite an experience, and I learned so much in just a week. I truly appreciate the opportunity.

Letters to the Editor

Made A Mountain Out of a Molshill

Dear Editor:

This morning I read the Crawford County Avalanche's front page article regarding an Ohio National Guard jeep turning illegally in front of another car. You captioned the story as an illegal turn, but at the end of the story the guardsman was cited for making an improper turn by not signalling.

Since the car that was struck belonged to Mr. Dan Alstott, President of AMAC, (who by the way, as many know, has had a running feud with Camp Grayling and the National Guard). the incident made the front page of your newspaper.

As I read through the paper, I came upon the "Letters to the Editor" section. I was really surprised by the caption you used for Mr. Alstott's letter. To say that an accident demonstrates disregard for civilians by the National Guard, is preposterous.

If the accident had involved another civilian, the story probably would not made the newspaper and Mr. Alstott would probably not have even written a volved in an accident letter about this in- can be traumatizing, cident. But because it but to blow the incident was a guardsman's out of proportion fault, Mr. Alstott feels because it involved the the need to attack the National Guard is un-National Guard.

He was furious that Ohio National Shame on you, Crawford County Avalanche. With your misleading headlines for these two articles, you are beginning to take on the appearance "National of the Enquirer'' who, as we all know, uses profitmaking sationalism to capture the reader's attention. Q. My friend wears one contact lens for seeing at a distance and another for reading and other close work. Is it okay to do that?

A. Yes. This is called monovision. It is a popular way to provide good vision at all seeing distances for people over 40, most of whom have presbyopia, a vision condition which affects reading vision and is part of the normal aging process. Many also need help to see clearly at a distance. Bifocal contact lenses are anothe option but the prescription parameters are limited right now. So they won't work for everyone. Most people can adapt to monovision. Those who need help only for seeing up close wear only one contact lens. Any type of contacts-hard, soft, gas permeable and extended-wear can be used with monovision. People over 40 have more complicated vision demands than younger persons. It is important, therefore, to seek care from an optometrist willing to give your eyes the extra time and attention they need.

Students Win & For Erosion Study Papers

The AuSable River Property Owners Association awarded a total of $100 in prize money to 10 Grayling High School environmental science students for excellent erosion study papers. The prizes were presented Jim Leech, representing the Association, on June 1. Michael Wieland, GHS science instructor, initiated the competition in his freshman environmental science courses in 1986.

He said that for this year's studies, students found erosion sites throughout Crawford County that have been caused by off-road vehicles, running water, wave and ice action and pedestrian traffic.

Students mapped their chosen sites to a size of 21/2 acres by township, section and range measurement. Then they explained the causes of the problems and possible proposed corrective action to be taken.

Marines Recapture UP During Training Here

By Sgt. Gary Patterson

On May 1st, Canada and the upper peninsula of Michigan were successfully invaded by Delta led Huron Pact countries. This really did not occur but that was the scenario for the Marines attending their annual training duty at Camp Grayling.

On May 28 key personnel of Marine Wing Support Group-47 from Selfridge Air National Guard Base in Mt. Clemens, Michigan (day embarked on a convoy to Camp Grayling.

The primary task for the Marines, both active duty and reserve, was to set up a Combat Operations Center and billeting have arrangements for other Marines and Navy personnel arriving from El Toro and Alameda, Califor-

The three elements of Marines would join together to comprise the Marine Wing Support Squadron-472 and through Basic Warrior Training --- a combat training that General A.M. Gray, Commandant of the Marine Corps, has issued for all Marines to complete. During their two week training cycles, Leathernecks would be given instructions on: firing of the M-60 and M-50machine guns, firing the M-16 rifle, the M-203 Grenade Launcher and the LAAW (a bazooka type weapon). They would also have classes to cover matters such as : land navigation, map reading, patrolling and night), this rewarding task. helicopter extraction, security and intelligence, first aid, camouflage techniques, nuclear defense, and a variety of other combat battle Squadron, both active techniques.

The same time the Marines were conducting their Basic Warrior Training, they were also able to assist the local community by completing the demolition of Hanson Hills' legendary ''Toboggan House.''

According to Sgt. Mack Morgan, a heavy equipment operator from MWSG-47 who supervised demolition, the Marines are always willing to assist the citizens whenever possible. "We Marines are not just trained soldiers, we were also trained in Boot Camp to aid the public in any way we might be able to help," Sgt. Morgan said.

Did you know that no big lengue baseball team has been able to win the pennant 2 years in a row anytime 1980's...Last teams to win back-to-back pennants in the majors were the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League in 1977 and 1978, and the New York Yankees in the American League, also in 1977 und 1978.

What's the fastest anyone ever played 18 holes of golf?...The world record is held by James Carvill of freland who played a regulation 18-hole course, holing out each hole, in 27 minutest...Carviti ran at top speed between each shot.

Here's a surprising fact...Although Wrigley Field is one of the nation's most famous ballparks as the home of the Chicago Cubs, it was NOT built for the Cubs...It opened in 1914 as the home of the Chicago Whales of the old Federal League baseball.

I bet you didn't know...That GM has increased rebates on some of their new cars to the highest customer savings level that they have ever had! Would you believe $1400 rebates on new Pontiac Grand Ams? How about $1850 rebates on some Bulck LeSabres, or $1000 on Chevy Camaro, or Olds Ninety Eights have $1500 rebates. By Laurie Goss The second week of Youth Service Bureau summer recreation got under way on Monday, June 19. On this day, Group B played kickball and wiffleball, and then went swimming at Pine Knoll. It was a great day for them to catch up on their tans.

On Tuesday, Group A-1 also went to Pine Knoll. It was sort of cloudy the first part of the day, but it didn't take long for the sun to come out and make it a warm, enjoyable day.

On Wednesday, Group A-2 played kickball and then went to the North Higgins Lake State Park for the remainder of the day to go swimming. Even though it was cool, windy, and cloudy, the kids still enjoyed themselves in the lake.

On Thursday, Group B went to Funland Amusement Park in Houghton Lake. There the kids had the opportunity to ride on the gocarts, play mini golf, ride the bumper boats, and go on the most favorite ride of the day, the water slide. It was an enjoyable day for all.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick Conservation Officer

The largest woodsize, pecker to be found in Michigan probably the country, considering the likely extinction of the ivory billed woodpecker) is not uncommon locally, infrequently but is seen. At 20 inches long, the pileated woodpecker with its white striped, black body and large crimson topknot has earned its once common nickname of

"cock of the woods". This bird's large distinctive coloration and powerful wingbeats are ideal clues to its identity when it is most often seen as a blur going from tree to tree.

The pileated woodpecker is a denizen of large forests, feeding almost exclusively on ants, grubs and other insects. The large oblong holes left behind are a sure sign of the bird's presence. For nesting, these woodpeckers choose a tall, branchless stub in dense forests well within the leaf canopy of nearby live trees. They will return to the same vicinity year after year.

This bird's life style requires large forests, a fact which led to a population decline during the logging period. The onset of second growth timber has meant an increase in numbers, but a recent increase in cutting of large trees may again be a limiting factor on the population.

LETTER FROM HOME

When you're feeling sad and lonely. Like you are facing the world alone, There's nothing that can lift your spirits, Like a long letter from home.

Mom says that things are going well. Dad's crops are coming along good. The hens are getting broody, Not laying like they should.

Sister Jane and her husband, Bob, Bought the old Cameron farm. They've got the house fixed up nice And are building a new barn. The kids are doing good in school. Sally will graduate next year. Jim is getting good marks, now, That he finally got his brain in gear.

Mr. Patterson, from down the road, Broke his leg, the other day. Dad and the boys are doing his chores. Till he can get around O.K.,

Hope you can come home soon, For we miss you more each day. It just doesn't seem right around here, Now that you have gone away.

It always helps ease the loneliness, You don't seem so much alone, When you look into your mailbox, And see a long letter from home.

Reports of City Manager. Mr. Morford reported on the Convention, Michigan Municipal League in Marquette. Ordinance number 69, effective May 28, 1989

Clean-up Program Progress. Reports of Council Members.

Ms. Latuszek requested an evaluation of the job performance of the City Manager. Mr. Morford, when asked, preferred the discussion to take place in the "open meeting" as opposed to in an Executive Session. Ms. Latuszek expressed disappointment that in the past eight years with several inquiries concerning the junk ears and other items on the corner of Ogemaw and Norway Streets, that enforcement of Ordinance 11 was ineffective in her opinion. She suggested that with sufficient notification to the property owner, extraction of the junk or an adequate fence surrounding same, might remedy the unsightliness. Ms. Latuszek further requested that Mr. Morford, with the help of the City Attorney, examine other legal remedies to the situation.

Mr. Sloan requested more priority on City Council wishes. City Street update on vacated streets. More city general information and response to questions.

Council requested a 10 minute recess. Ayes: 5, Nays:0.

More time spent at the City Office. Areas to work on, burned out and vacant houses in the city

Mr. Thompson would like the decision not to be just Mr. Morford's decision regarding zoning and give alternatives to inquiring individuals and as much help as possible. Mr. White would like inquiries given in writing to Morford.

Mr. Sloan inquired about the water problem on Vilas Street brought to the city's attention May 4, 1989, date of first inquiry. Ms. Latuszek requested the establishment of job descriptions for all city employees as well as the establishment of written evaluations for all city employees on an annual basis. Completion of job descriptions should be 60 days.

Mr. Sloan has concerns for all areas mentioned. Mr. Thompson felt the City Manager should over burden Council with information.

Council inquired about parking lot at City Hall. Progress on alley behind Mac's Drug Store was also men-Tioned as an ongoing need. Continued progress on City Ordinance work was also noted

Moved by Golnick, supported by Thompson that the meeting be adjourned. Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, Absent: 0, motion carried. The meeting was adjourned at 10:00 p.m. Jerry W. Morford

The Vible Speaks From Calvary Baptist Church

The Gospel of John Part #84

Love Amid Hatred The world hates the divine eminence of our Lord Jesus Christ. He said, "If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you." As Jesus said in John 7:7, "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil." Within the context of love for each other, the disciples are warned about hatred from the world. Be it pride, jealousy or envy which motivates the unsaved hatred of the Christian, it is to be remembered that the hatred is really being directed toward the Lord Jesus Christ who dwells within us.

"Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you." (I John 3:13).

The world hates divine election. "If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you." (John 15:19). The Christian is told, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the you, and when they world. If any man love shall separate you the world, the love of the father is not in him. and shall reproach For all that is in the vou, and cast out your world, the lust of the name as evil, for the flesh, the lust of the Son of man's sake." eyes, and the pride of (Luke 6:22). life, is not of the Father, but is of the (I John world.'' 2:15,16). "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye tran-

renewing of your mind,

what is that good, and

fect, will of God."

that ye may prove

(Rom 12:2).

The world hates divine enlightment. "Remember the word that I said unto you. The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also." (John 15:20). The world has always hated those who proclaim the pure word of God. "Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers." (Acts 7:52). As Jesus said. "But all these things will they do unto you for my names's sake, because they know not him that sent me." (John 15:21).

Peter said we should rejoice to suffer for Jesus Christ. "But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy." (I Pet 4:13). As our Lord said, "Blessed are ye. when men shall hate from their company,

Crawford County Ordinance No. 89-2

AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF CRAWFORD. MICHIGAN FOR THE PURPOSE OF REQUIRING THE PAYMENT OF COSTS INCURRED BY THE COUNTY OF CRAWFORD IN MAKING EMERGENCY RESPONSES TO MOTOR VEHICLE ACCIDENTS AND/OR ARRESTS IN-VOLVING DRIVERS WHO WERE OPERATING A MOTOR VEHICLE WHILE UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES AND/OR A CONTROLLED

The County of Crawford ordains: Section 1. PURPOSE:

The County of Crawford finds that a significant number of traffic arrests and traffic accidents in the County involve drivers who were operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcoholic beverages and/or a controlled substance. In addition, the County finds that in traffic accidents involving drivers who were operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcoholic beverages and/or a controlled substance there is a greater likelihood of personal injury and property damage. As a result of these determinations, a greater operational and/or financial burden is placed upon the Crawford County Sheriff's Department, the Crawford County Ambulance Service and other rescue services, by persons operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcoholic beverages and/or a controlled sub-

(b) "Expense of emergency response" shall mean the costs associated with the occurrence of an emergency response as set forth in Subsection (a) (1) or (a) (2), whichever is applicable, of this Section. The expenses of making an emergency response as set forth in Section (a) (2) of this Section shall include the costs connected with the administration, provision, and the analysis of any chemical tests and the videotaping of the driver, if applicable. These costs shall be set by resolution of the Crawford County Board of Commissioners.

Section 3: (a) Any person who, while under the the influence of an alcoholic beverage or any controlled substance, or the combined influence of an alcoholic beverage and any controlled substance. operates a motor vehicle which results in an emergency response as defined in Section 2 of this Ordinance shall be responsible and/or liable for the expenses of the emergency response.

(b) For purposes of this Ordinance, it shall be presumed that a person was operating a motor vehicle under the influence of an alcoholic beverage if chemical analysis of the driver's blood, urine, or breath indicates that the amount of alcohol in the driver's blood was in excess of 0.07 percent.

Section 4: This Ordinance shall be constructed to be a responsibility and liability of a civil nature on the part of the driver and shall not be construed to conflict, contravene or enlarge or reduce any criminal liability or responsibility including fines imposed by a

Judge under the Michigan Vehicle Code on a driver for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage and/or controlled substance. Section 5: All Ordinances or part of Ordinances inconsistent with the provisions hereof are hereby repealed. This Ordinance shall take effect when notice of the adoption is published in a newspaper of general circulation.

I, Elizabeth H. Wieland, Clerk of the Board of Commissioners for the County of Crawford do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and copy of the ordinance adopted by the Crawford County Board of Commissioners at a regular session held on Thursday, June 22, 1989. Clerk/Register of Deeds Elizabeth H. Wieland

A Symbol of Nobility

The bald eagle, a noble bird, emblem of America. And yet it was not the choice of Benjamin Franklin, one of our wisest

To emphasize the difference between the world's first democracy and the warlike, aristocratic powers of Europe, Franklin chose the docile turkey, so common to America—instead of a bird of prey—to symbolize the United States. But the eagle, long a sign of courage, freedom and power, caught the fancy of Franklin's fellow patriots gathered at Philadelphia in 1787

To them "noble" meant more than hereditary rank. Noble also meant "an exalted moral character, admirable in conception, stately"—all qualities epitomizing the democratic experiment called the United

And to this day the United States strives to retain that noble character symbolized by its emblem, embodied by its spiritual heritage.
